

Write your essay (max. 500 words)

Describe your recent, meaningful, and impactful leadership experience

Choose a theme, your 'leadership experience' could be one of the following (not-exhaustive):

- Lead self (e.g.: addressing personal challenges, creating a product from scratch, initiate a new community, etc)
- Lead team (e.g.: leading a campus organization, group of communities, a team of business project, etc)
- Lead change (e.g.: addressing educational issue in the community, active contribution to social/national issue, etc)

Essay Framework

- Describe the context and situation of the leadership experience
- Explain your role in your leadership experience
- Describe what impact you delivered in your leadership experience

Please use any questions below to guide writing your story that are relevant to your leadership experience

Essay Questions

How did you solve the problem within your leadership experience?

- Clearly describe the issue that you faced:
 - It can be a personal problem, an intellectual challenge, a research query, an ethical dilemma, or a social/national issue
- What steps and what kind of effort did you take in solving the issue?
- What were the significance or the impact you have created after you solve the issue or challenge?

How did you lead your team within your leadership experience?

- Describe your position, role, and size of the team
- What were the challenges you faced while leading the team? (e.g.: tough decisions, irresponsible team member, conflicting schedule, etc)
- What kind of approach did you take in facing the issue or challenges?
- Explain the lessons learned from the experience and how it shapes you as a leader

TIPS

- Follow the essay framework to help you write a structured essay
- Choose an experience close to your passion where you have made significant contribution
- Clearly highlight the impact that the change brings as well as the size of the impact